

Ortega HYDRA Double Neck Tenor 4/8 Strings Ukulele:

Stairway to heaven is a song legendary played by musicians all over the world on any imaginable stringed instrument. Now you are able to play it just like Jimmy Page on a double neck – ukulele style! Our Hydra model features an 8 string and 4 string mahogany neck set into a tenor sized Ovangkol body with open pore finish. In addition to that this unique instrument comes with ORTEGA CUSTOM BUILT ELECTRONICS featuring a three way mini toggle to switch between the necks or to activate both at the same time. A rectangle deluxe gig bag is included.

Double your Creativity

Experience an instrument like never before. Explore and experiment with almost any playing style. Designed to spark creativity and bring even more fun to playability. You can also double-up with a fellow musician to get those innovative vibes flowing. Take over playing one neck, and let your uke-buddy handle the other neck for a truly memorable performance. Strive to be different. Stand out with Ortega.

Lively and Balanced Ukulele Character

Experience a familiar ukulele tone with a visually striking twist. This modern take on a traditional ukulele brings you an instrument that is perfect for unleashing true creativity. The Ortega HYDRA has a tenor-sized ovangkol body which produces a well-balanced response to a wide variety of techniques. Additionally, ovangkol is known to produce similar sonic-qualities to rosewood. And it delivers a well-rounded tone with a pronounced mid-range.

Head-Turning Live Performance

You're going to stand out with the HYDRA. Take to the stage and make heads-turn with its unique look and melodic sound. The Ortega Double Neck Tenor comes equipped with custom built electronics and a 3-way switch. These custom build electronics are designed specifically to capture the HYDRA's tone in great detail. Live performance is just simply stunning. You can use the 3-way switch to find your preferred live sonic-persona, or for exploring new sounds. Switch between the 4-string and 8-string neck or blend both for endless avenues of unique ukulele performance. Versatility is truly at your fingertips.
