Sparkling authenticity

Purity in sound, precision in performance. The Ortega Horizon Concert Uke is delicately crafted from a range of handpicked tonewoods, to deliver a playing experience of superb character. Featuring an all mahogany body, a well-balanced sound will resonate freely around the concert-sized shape. Not only does this produce a naturally wholesome tone, but each chord will project with sheer clarity, making this Uke ideal for performers.

Furthermore, the Ortega Horizon Uke is layered with a refined techwood fretboard. Its silky-smooth surface guarantees completely effortless playability, as your hand glides from fret to fret. This allows for a truly user-friendly experience, and hours of unhindered playing. So, whether you're just starting out, or a seasoned player; the Ortega Horizon Concert Uke ensures a comfortable performance of rich, authentic personality.

Unmistakable design

Total individuality. Every musician craves to have that unique spark. And with the Ortega Horizon Concert Uke, originality thrives from the moment you pick it up. Displaying a stunning, open-pore finish across both the neck and body surface, your Concert Uke will boast a totally natural aesthetic. Its subtle grain texture decorates the mahogany surface with a distinctive quality, presenting a Uke you can truly call your own.

Additionally, the Horizon Concert Ukulele features a reverse headstock for unparalleled style. The inverted headstock design has been a staple mark on the instruments of some of music's most historic players. And now, the same cherished design can be yours. Finished off with a beautiful natural finish, the Horizon Concert Uke entails a pathway to a distinguished performance.
