

The Epson Y-Cable is specifically designed to transfer both data and power to your Epson printer. When connected to your 24 Volt powered USB port on your host PC, this cable drives your Epson printer as well as receives power. Additionally, the cable color also matches your printer and system. Measuring 10 Feet in length, this cable is long enough to accommodate a distributed layout.